

There is a new star in heaven...

. . . Forever shining in our hearts

My first in everything: first puppy I picked from a litter, first champion title, first agility title. . . my shadow, my best friend. It's so empty by my side. We know you are in heaven with dad Wizard romping cancer-free and when we get there, we know you will be ready to greet us with a ball. Until then, we smile at the memories of the fun we had and miss you each and every day.
